ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can If your eyes need attention have DR. DEPOT ABOUT FINISHED.

The Work of Messrs. Getaz & Sons, the Contractors.

The Southern's new depot is receiving the finishing touches today, and the building will be swept out and surrendered by the contractors tomorrow or next day. Arrangements are being made to lay a temporary track, so that the old depot can be used until the new one is occupied, which will be only a few days.

The work of Messrs. D. Getaz & Sons is par excellence. Only the best material was used in every part of the structure, and only the best of work was done. The building is one of the finest in the state, and the work is surpassed by few in the South. Mr. Gatez and his clever and courteous superintendent, Mr. Morris, have made many friends during their stay here, and the depot stands as an excellent sample of their work.

THE FURNACE CHARGED

And Work Will Begin Upon Receipt of Instructions From New York

The Empire Steel and Iron Works now stand ready to begin blasting, and Manager Noble is only awaiting instructions from the New York office to press the button. The big furnace has been charged, and the work of blasting can be begun on only a few hours' notice. Coke and ore are being received in large shipments, and great piles of both have been delivered at the works. The Atlantic and Yadkin delivered about thirty car loads of the former Saturday, and ore from Ore Hill arrives in eight and ten car lots daily. The furnace will use thirty-two car loads a day when work is begun.

SOUTHERN RAILROAD OFFICIALS

Should Look After The Order of Things at The Depot.

Yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock, just before the Winston train had arrived and before either the southbound local or vestibule had come in a Telegram representative chanced to pass the Southern depot and found the white ladies' waiting room totally occupied by colored women, while the colored waiting room was almost entirely deserted. Outside, walking up and down in front of the waiting room, were quite a crowd of white gentlemen and ladies who, having purchased their tickets for travel, had no seats to use while waiting for the trains One of the ladies called the attention of the Telegram man to the situation, and spoke of it in terms of unmistakable condemnation.

The Southern Railway officials are to be justly censured for allowing such a state of affairs to exist.

FUNERAL OF J. J. THORNTON.

A Large Procession—Interment in Green Hill.

The funeral of the late J J. Thornton was preached in St. Agnes Episcopal church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev Horace Weeks Jones, Mr. Thornton's pastor, and Rev. J.D. Miller. The deceased was a member of the Knights Templar, and was buried with Masonic honors. The members of Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, Knights of Pythias, also attended the funeral in a body, acting as an escort.

The long procession and the large crowd which attended the funeral was an evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The church was packed to overflowing.

After the funeral a large concourse followed the remains to Green Hill cemetery, where, after the conclusion of the services, they were laid to rest.

Which?

It was amusing in a company the other day, representing education, culture, and the highest social circles, to find how timidly each person, when appealed to as to a little point of history, gave his or her opinion of the color of the flower borne on the ensigns of two contestants, namely, the houses of York and of Lancaster—which the white and which the red

In a peaceful and most enjoyable way it is all to be enacted in our midst in a few days, and lest you find yourself embarrassed, maybe it would be just as well to inform yourself as to the leading features of the "War of the Roses."

A MOB'S WORK IN GEORGIA

The Law Trampled Upon, And Not For The Nameless Crime.

AN AGED MINISTER LYNCHED.

The Most Intense Excitement Prevails—People Rushing To The Scene From Afar.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Palmetto, Ga., April 24—Rev. Lige Strickland, a minister of the gospel of unsavory reputation, who paid one Hoss and a man named Hewitt twenty dollars apiece to kill Alfred Cranford, was hanged near here last night by the same mob that burned Hoss to a stake yesterday. The mob is still after Hewitt.

All night long the lynchers sat in court, first here, then at one one o'clock this morning, tidings of possible interference by state troops having reached them, adjourned to the wildwood. The preacher was taken far from town, deep among the pines, and huge bonfires were hung to furnish light and warmth. The gloomy trial then proceeded, with the white-haired minister, weeping and appealing to their mercy, tied to a tree. He protested constantly that he was not guilty; calling upon God to witness his innocence, his face the picture of abject terror.

The mob found Strickland at the house of Major Thomas, his employer, who said that Strickland had nothing to do with the Crawford affair. Others of the household said he was a law-abiding citizen. Some of the members of the mob favored letting the law take its course, and suggested their going to another place, where several others lived who knew Strickland. This met with general approval, and the court moved to the woods and strung up the prisoner two or three times in an effort to make him confess, but Strickland denied any connection with the crime. The crowd was about evenly divided, but finally decided to take the prisoner to Fairburn jail.

This was the last seen of Strickland alive. A couple of farmers coming to town this morning reported seeing his body hanging to a tree, horribly mutilated.

There is a rush from all quarters to the scene of the lynching, by train, team, and all manner of conveyance. Several specials have come in from Atlanta and other points, and all regular trains are crowded with eager sight-seers.

NEGRO KILLED.

Atlanta, Ga., April 24—A telephone message from Palmetto at 10 o'clock this morning says that a mob has captured and put to death Albert Swell, a negro who had declared that every negro lynched should be avenged. The mob is still hunting negroes, and probably two more will be lynched before night.

To Buy H. and L. Horses.

Messrs. R. M. Rees, T. M. Pickard and J. W. Blackburn went to Winston today at noon to negotiate for the purchase of a pair of horses for the Greensboro Hook and Ladder Co. It will be remembered that the board of aldermen at a recent meeting authorized the sale of the mules now used and the purchase of a pair of good horses—with the accent on the good. The boys of the company have not been able to do a great deal since the new truck was purchased, the mules being too light to draw it, but fortunately the truck has not been much needed.

When the horses are bought, training them will be the next work, but the boys expect to have them trained to perfection in time to show up well in the coming tournament.

Summit Avenue Sale.

The sale of houses on Summit avenue at auction will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Summit avenue when the shade trees grow up will suggest a Chicago boulevard, a section of Michigan avenue.

THE LAKE CITY LYNCHERS.

The Government Will Probably Drop The Matter Now.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S CONDITION

Is Not Improved, And It is Not Thought He Will Be a Candidate For Re-Election.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 24th—At the department of justice the trial of the alleged lynchers of Postmaster Baker and baby, of Lake City, has been watched with intense interest, The verdict has been anxiously awaited. The general impression among most of the officials who have watched the progress of the trial has been that the jury would be either divided, or that a verdict of acquittal would result. In either event the beliefis that there will be no further attempt on the part of federal authorities here to bring the guilty parties to justice.

Ex-Attorney General Barber, of South Carolina, who since the expiration of his term of office, has been practicing law in New York city, passed through Washington Saturday morning enroute east from Charleston. Col. Barber was one of the counsel for the prosecution, and delivered the principal argument in the case, which is considered among his friends to have been one of the best efforts of his life. The Colonel did not wait for the verdict of the jury in the case before leaving Charleston for New York, as he was anxious to return east, where there is considerable business of importance awaiting his attention, as soon as possible. He arrived in the city late Friday night, and remained over until Saturday morning, stopping at the St. James hotel. Although having delivered the chief argument for the prosecution, Col Barber did not anticipate a verdict of guilty being returned, but was of the opinion that the result would be a mistrial. He would not say whether the prosecution would make any further efforts to secure conviction of the parties, but his manner indicated that he thought nothing further would be done in the case.

A lawyer from Philadelphia by the name of Uhl was in Washington city Saturday, having arrived from Raleigh, N. C. It is stated that a ward, a young girl, had eloped with a negro in the state of New Jersey, and that the attorney was in search of her. The negro is a married man, and has two or three children.

Col. R. Walton Moore is in the city for the purpose of appearing as counsel in a will case—that of Marie Coles, which, it is understood, will be called Monday before Judge Hagner. Col. Moore has been prominetly mentioned as a candidate for the United States Senate from Virginia, to succeed Senator Martin. He is one of the signers for the Richmond convention, and is of the opinion that it will be largely attended by Democrats of prominence from all parts of the State.

Other Democrats from Virginia coming to Washington say that the convention will not be attended by any of the opponents of the primary system, and they believe that very few, if any, of the real friends of Senator Martin will be in attendance.

It is now stated that in the census act passed by the last Congress there is no provision made for a division of the offices, although it was the intention of the framers of the act that there should be. Whether this is true or not, steps have been taken in Virginia, South Carolina, and one or two other Southern States, to secure such a division, to which both parties have assented. It is thought similar steps will be taken in North Carolina.

Star service in North Carolina from Ironhill to Tabor, has been reduced to three times a week.

John S. Yates has been commissioned postmaster at Idlewild, North Carolina.

It is stated that the condition of Vice-President Hobart does not grow much better, and that in fact his condition is not so encouraging as when he returned from Georgia, a few weeks ago. It is doubted by prominent republicans if he will be able to preside at the next session of the senate, and it is almost conceded that he will not stand for renomination.

T. L. Craig, of Gastonia, North Carolina, is at the St. James Hotel for a few days

NEWS FROM REIDSVILLE.

The Welcome to Company D—Negro Hurt—Water Works, Etc.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Reidsville, April 24—The boys of Company D arrived home at noon yesterday. They were met at the station by the Reidsville Rifles, the Concert Band and between 1,500 and 2,000 people. The company marched to the Rifles armory where, after a short but touching address of welcome, by Rev. J. A. Mundy, a bountiful spread was served. The band played "Home, Sweet Home," "Nearer My God To Thee" and "Dixie."

At 2 30 o'clock the companies marched to the Baptist church where Rev. J. A. Mundy preached a strong and fitting sermon. Miss Bertha Jones sang two lovely solos and Miss Ethel Jones also sang one. The church was beautifully decorated and the boys were made to feel their welcome in every way. After the sermon the returning company formed in line in front of the church, to give the hundreds of people a chance to shake hands. After this the company disbanded and the men went to their homes from which they had been absent six days less than one year. It was a glad home coming and a happy ending of a year of soldier life.

George Mebane, a Danville negro, was badly hurt on the railroad yard here yesterday morning. He was beating his way on the vestibule and in jumping off as the train passed was thrown under the cars. His right foot was run over and so badly mashed that it was amputated just above the ankle. Drs. Walton and Sapp performed the operation at the Walton Sanitarium.

Reidsville's streets are badly torn up now, excavations having been made on almost every street preparatory to putting in water pipe. The pipe has already been put in for some distance on Main street. The work is progressing swiftly and the system will be completed before many weeks.

HOPE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

Consumption! What a fearful signification has the very name. The approach of the fell monster is insidious, the pale horse with measured footfall ever treading in the wake, and the victim may close his eyes to the sunlight of this world and look to a happier existence, for the icy grasp is always fatal. It is proved by actual statistics that where any other disease known to medical science kills one person, consumption slays five!

But there is happily a ray of light to this dark picture. Surgeon General Wyman, of the United States Marine Hospital Service, says that consumption, or pulmonary tuberculosis, may be cured in a high, dry and mild climate, if the patient is given gentle exercise in the open air.

Upon this theory, says the New York Herald, a government sanitarium, under the management of the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service, is to be opened in New Mexico the latter part of next month Only marine hospital patients will be treated at first, but if the establishment is a success the scope of the resort will be broadened to take in other patients at a small expense, sufficient to pay the actual cost of subsistence.

An old abandoned military reservation, known as Fort Stanton, in Lincoln county, New Mexico, is the site turned over to the marine hospital service for this porpose by order of the president. The official transfer of the property from the secretary of war to the secretary of the treasury has been made in accordance with the statutes, and the work of rehabilitating the thirty odd stone buildings on the reservation will be commenced at once, with the expectation of having the sanitarium ready to receive patients by the latter part of May next.

Surgeon General Walter Wyman has had the subject under consideration for a number of years, and he is now about to realize one of the ambitions of his life, in the establishment of an institution where consumption may be cured through the agency of climatic influence.

General Wyman is a believer in the theory that consumption can be cured by living in a mild, dry climate and occupying themselves at some gentle exercise or labor. He contends that it is beneficial to the patient to have his mind and also his body employed while undergoing treatment.

Having secured the authority to establish the institution, General Wyman proposes to run it economically and on lines similar to those employed in educating a marine hospital. He says it will cost no more than an ordinary hospital, and it may eventually become self-supporting if the patients are benefitted arcording to his anticipations and the products of the reservation are profitable.

This is the season of the year when the young woman's fancy turns—the baseball crank—a fool.

WELCOME HOME, BOYS.

The First North Carolina regiment boys have laid aside their rifles, and yesterday they returned to their various homes, where each received a warm welcome. They have made a record of which they should feel proud, and of which the old State does feel proud. General Lee said the First North Carolina was the best regiment in his command, and it has been called the "Pride of the Seventh Corps."

Some of the boys go back to the plow-handles, some to the factory, some to the office and store, and some to the home of culture, refinement and affluence. They are all alike brave—no less than if they had met the enemy, and we welcome their return among us, where may they rest in peace and prosperity till the sleeping sword of war shall have been awakened once more.

The coming Confederate reunion at Charleston bids fair to be a great and happy occasion. The city has made abundant preparation for entertaining the old followers of the lost cause as they were never entertained before, and is hoped that the North Carolina camps will be largely represented. The Confederates are assured of a most happy reception.

"BEN HUR" TO BE DRAMATIZED.

"Ben Hur" is to be dramatized under the supervision of K'aw and Erlanger and with the consent of Gen. Lew Wallace. The author made this statement here tonight, with the accompanying assertion that the religious features of his famous book will be carefully safeguarded when it is rendered on the stage.

Gen. Wallace has given his consent only after great pressure. Ever since the publication of "Ben Hur" he has been besieged with applications by managers and actors to permit its dramatization. Lawrence Barrett, the young Salvini and the Kiralfys are among those who thus petitioned him, but hitherto he has feared the book could not be adapted to the stage and its religious features protected. He is now satisfied this can and will be done. —Crawfordsville, Ind., dispatch to the Chicago Times-Herald.

We hope that Gen. Wallace has done a wise thing in giving his consent to the dramatization of that grand book, "Ben Hur." While the moral effect of the dramatic presentation of the "Tale of the Christ," in the hands of high-grade a tists, may be for good still the mere fact of the impersonation of the sacred character of the Christ upon the irreverent stage might have the undesirable effect of increasing the already deplorable irreverence among some of the people.

We hope the sacred features of the book will be carefully guarded.

The revision of the Dreyfus case still drags its weary length along. It is getting to be exceedingly dry for us.

Easy Way to Be Generous.

In the Baptist church of a New England village was an old man who had all the Christian graces save one, and that one was the grace of liberality. He would do anything in the world for the cause of religion but give up his money. At the close of the financial year 1869 the church found itself $400 in debt. A church meeting was called, and it was voted to circulate a subscription paper on the spot and endeavor to thus raise the sum needed. This was done, and the old gentleman did not put his name on the paper. The result was rather disheartening, $200 only having been pledged. Silence reigned for a moment, when one of the most generous men in the church moved that "we double our subscriptions." Instantly the old gentleman was on his feet, and with extraordinary fervor cried, "I second the motion."

He evidently felt that he was thus doing his part in hastening a most desirable result.—Harper's Round Table.

What Love Is.

Miss Sophie Loury employs an exceedingly communicative old colored man to attend to odd jobs about her studio now and then, and his sayings have become proverbial among Miss Loury's familiars. He came to work one day not long ago very full of the goings on of a young man he knew, who was in love.

"But what is love, uncle?" asked Miss Loury.

Uncle wagged his head wisely.

"Miss Sophie," he said solemnly, "love is dizziness, unizziness and inattention to business."

And really I don't know of any definition more concise, complete and altogether adequate than that.—Washington Post.

Study It Out.

Here is a highly interesting paradox, which may amuse or bewilder, as the case may be. It is supposed to have been invented by Socrates: A. says that all Athenians are liars. A. is an Athenian and therefore a liar. Therefore his statement that all Athenians are liars is not true, and consequently all Athenians tell the truth. A. is an Athenian, and hence tells the truth. Wherefore his statement that all Athenians are liars is true. Therefore he is a liar and his statement false, and so on.

Force of Waves.

In a high gale mile long waves, 200 feet from trough to trough and 40 feet high, roar along the sea at the rate of 20 miles an hour, with a weight of 60,000 pounds for every foot of their length.

Upon these a 600 foot ship, such as the New York or the Paris, will rise like a floating leaf, but if the ill fated ship drifts upon a lee shore blows of 100,000 tons, delivered with remorseless fury, crush it like an eggshell.

A Matrimonial Musing.

The average young man thinks he is in a position to marry if he has $250 in the bank and a steady job. Hope is a great factor in a love affair. After the man is 40 he wonders how he ever did it, and when he eats pie at night and has the nightmare he always imagines that he is marrying again on $250.—Atchison Globe.

Rheumatism Cured.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. Cuyler, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading merchants of this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity. —W. G. Phippin, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

A Test of Nerve.

The midshipman had greater freedom under Captain Lyons, who, being a thorough seaman, made that acquirement his first object by placing his young officers in positions of responsibility. He made his midshipmen take charge of the watch night and day. I had then been only four years in the service. One night the weather looked very threatening, and we had royals set, so I went down to the captain and asked whether I should shorten sail. He turned round in his cot and said, "Wait till it comes."

I went on deck, and, knowing what he would say if any spars were lost, I commenced taking in sail. We were struck by a squall so fierce that I had to put the helm up and get the ship before the wind to get the canvas in. When Captain Lyons came on deck and saw what I had done, he gave me great credit, laughed and said he had tried my nerve and sailoring. When I passed for lieutenant, he gave me a certificate which modesty forbids me to publish.—"Life of Vice Admiral Lord Lyons," by Captain Wilmot.

The Popping Stone.

"The popping stone" marks the spot where Sir Walter Scott asked Miss Carpenter to marry him. It is situated in the beautiful valley of the Irthing, at Gilsland, an inland watering place near Carlisle. The popping stone is visited by many thousands during the summer months, and, it is said, many a laggard lover has had his courage screwed up to popping point at this romantic spot.

In the immediate neighborhood may also be seen "Mumps Ha," which Scott immortalized in "Guy Mannering," while a little farther afield the Roman wall and Laner cost priory prove attractions to visitors to Gilsland.

An Insulting Programme.

A lady's maid who had been to a servants' ball came back before the evening was half over and in tears. Her mistress inquired the cause.

"I was grossly insulted, ma'am, by a young man."

"Well, what did he do?"

"Well, ma'am, he asked me to go down to supper with him, and when we had finished he said, 'Is your programme full?'"—London Chronicle.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a thoroughly antiseptic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

I was reading an advertisement of hamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children —W. A. Strond, Popomoke City, Md For sale by C. E Holton.

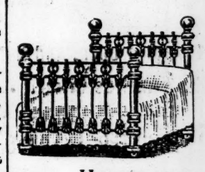
The Great Bargain Store

Which is daily growing to be a very popular store We have made special efforts this season to secure a line of Furniture which embodies the essential features of elegance, style and beauty. We think we have accomplished our intention, and therefore earnestly invite your inspection.



Brass and Iron Bed Steads.

How many persons realize that in a small bedroom a Brass or Iron Bed does not seem more than two-thirds as large as a wooden one of the same size. Here is one great cause for the popularity of brass and iron beds. Then, too,

They Are So Airy and Open

that they afford much better ventilation. They do not enclose the sleeper with wooden walls, shutting off all circulation of air, but there is an open frame giving the utmost ventilation. All the world knows their intrinsic cleanliness. They are as neat as wax, as clean as snow. If properly lacquered they will retain their high lustre for years.

We show the largest variety of styles and designs of any house in Greensboro and our prices will be found lower for the same grade of goods.

A Mother's Duty
is to see to it that her children begin early in life to shampoo their heads regularly once a week. In each instance, after the hair is thoroughly dry, some mild, health-giving tonic should be applied to the scalp to aid nature in creating the best possible growth of uniformly colored, lustrous, healthy hair—the most important feature in the make-up of beautiful women and handsome men. For more than fifteen years, the has stood at the apex of all shampoo washes, while the "HAIR GROWER" has been equally successful in its efforts to return the injured scalp and almost lifeless to their original healthfulness.

"I suppose that in this land," remarked the missionary, "a person of my calling cannot make his presence felt unless he gets on the right side of the king." "Not necessarily the right side," corrected the Prime Minister of Mbango: "your predecessor made his presence felt after he had got on the inside of his Majesty."

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. They are good pills. Howard Gardner.

The man was carrying a rabbit, and he looked suspicious. "Hey! there," yelled the policeman; "Is that your own hare?" No," replied the other; "it's a wig."

If you have piles, CURE them. No use undergoing horrible operations that simply remove the results of the disease without disturbing the disease itself. Place your confidence in DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It has never failed to cure OTHERS. It will not fail to cure YOU. Howard Gardner.

A waggish uptown druggist advertises: "Our dyspepsia remedy will settle your hash or any other troublesome article of food."

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Howard Gardner.

A natural gas explosion at Wheeling, W. Va., brought to the surface of a river the body of an unknown man who it is thought, was murdered.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

Wig—"What did your wife call you up on the phone for to-day?" Wag—"Oh, she just wanted to call me down."

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A freight train crashed through a trestle at Summit, Ont., killing Fireman McLaren and fatally injuring Engineer William Canfield.

Beats The Klonkike.
Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemmorhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

RUNNING SORE ON HIS ANKLE.

After Six Years of Intense Suffering, Promptly Cured By S. S. S.

Obstinate sores and ulcers which refuse to heal under ordinary treatment soon become chronic and deep-seated, and are a sure sign that the entire circulation is in a depraved condition. They are a severe drain upon the system, and are constantly sapping away the vitality. In every case the poison must be eliminated from the blood, and no amount of external treatment can have any effect.

There is no uncertainty about the merits of S. S. S.; every claim made for it is backed up strongly by convincing testimony of those who have been cured by it and know of its virtues by experience.

Mr. L. J. Clark, of Orange Courthouse, Va., writes: "For six years I had an obstinate, running ulcer on my ankle, which at times caused me intense suffering. I was so disabled for a long while that I was wholly unfit for business. One of the best doctors treated me constantly but did me no good. I then tried various blood remedies, without the least benefit. S. S. S. was so highly recommended that I concluded to try it, and the effect was wonderful. It seemed to get right at the seat of the disease and force the poison out, and I was soon completely cured." Swift's Specific——drives out every trace of impurity in the blood, and in this way cures permanently the most obstinate, deep-seated sore or ulcer. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains not a particle of potash, mercury, or other mineral. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Catarrh, Eczema, Rheumatism, Sores, Ulcers, Boils, or any other blood trouble. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

The Reidsville, Winston and Durham companies of the mustered-out First North Carolina regiment, came through Greensboro at 11 o'clock yesterday morning returning to to their respective homes.

The state convention W. C. T. U. will be held in Greensboro June 2d to 5th. The local unions hope that the people of the city will open their hearts and homes to the visiting delegates, and make the meeting one of the best ever held in the state.

Messrs. Z. V. Taylor and W. F. Blount sang a beautiful arrangement from Lawson at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Mr. Blount posseses a rich baritone voice. Mr. Taylor's tenor is so favorably known that comment at our hands is unnecessary.

It is reported that Buena Vista Lodge, I. O. O. F., of this place, will add the Canton degree to their work. This degree has the uniform feature, similar to the Knights Templar, Masonry, and the uniform rank K of P. The Buena Vista lodge is probably the strongest lodge of the order in the state.

A Nice Entertainment.

The intermediate and infant classes of West Market Street Sunday School gave an entertainment at the church last night, in the place of the regular preaching service. The program consisted of songs and recitations, members of the choir assisting in the former. Little Miss Lizzie Merrimon sang a solo with violin accompaniment by Master Sydney Alderman, which was exceedingly fine. Mrs. P. P. Claxton added much to the entertainment, singing a beautiful solo.

Get a pair for the little folks. You can buy infant's Dongola, Tan and Patent Leather sandal slippers for 40, 50, 65 and 75 cents a pair at Thacker & Brockmann's. Larger sizes for children and misses in the same proportion. We make a specialty of children's and infants shoe and carry the largest assortment in the city.

AN INGLORIOUS RETURN.

Roanoke College Team Meets Defeat On Every Field.

Visiting baseball teams are probably of the opinion that North Carolina's teams are the pink of perfection this year. Few teams there are who have played North Carolina teams this year and escaped a series of unmerciful drubbings. The Roanoke College team, which came into this state last week with great expectations, left yesterday without having won a single game in the state. The boys took breakfast at the McAdoo, and baseball was little talked of by them The A. and M. College team struck the final blow at Raleigh yesterday. The Roanoke boys will probably advise all other teams coming this way to "go west."

Mr. Dudley Goes to Winston.

Mr. C. W. Dudley, who has been assistant superintendent of the Virginia Insurance Company here for some time, left last night for Winston, where he will permanently reside. Mr. Dudley is a most popular and worthy young man, and his company has promoted him to their superintendency at Winston.

We regret to lose him, and wish him continued success in his new home.

This Is Not What We Say,

But it is said by our patrons, again and again we hear it: "Always something new at Bendheim's." This is as it should be. Progressive merchants that we are, we have "always something new" hence the popularity we enjoy, hence the attraction to our store. Our immense output necessitates a constant inlet, and with such facilities for daily supplies our counters have always some new attraction — some sparkling novelty to arrest attention. An additional allurement is the power of price, which in all cases savors of economy.
